

NEWS

The House Organ of
THE NORTH BRITISH RUBBER CO. LTD.
 Affiliated to UNITED STATES RUBBER COMPANY

Christmas and New Year Holidays

The following are the holiday arrangements covering both factories :

CASTLE MILLS

Factory—2nd, 3rd and 4th January 1961.
 Staff—26th December 1960.
 2nd and 3rd January 1961.

HEATHHALL

Factory and Staff—26th December 1960.
 2nd, 3rd and 4th January 1961.

Anti-Flu Vaccination

OUR Managing Director set a good example when he headed the queue, on 25th October, of 150 volunteers at Castle Mills for anti-flu vaccination. A few weeks later another group took advantage of further supplies, making over 200 in all, who decided to take this timely precaution against winter flu. Purely voluntary, this injection costs 6s.

TO ALL N.B. PERSONNEL A Bright and Merry Christmas

memories and associations for him, and he expressed his deep appreciation for the vast improvement demonstrated in Footwear activities throughout the year. He continued: "I am confident that the same degree of co-operation and loyalty evidenced in Footwear can help us all in the other commodities of our factory".

After an excellent meal, the dancing which followed, with E. Hunter as M.C., was enjoyed by all, and it was with pleasure that the committee asked Mrs. Graham to award Alma McWilliam, Supervisor in our Production Control Department, the prize for the "Belle of the Ball".

The Chairman and members of the Entertainments Committee did a grand job—the 1960 Factory Dance will be remembered for the pleasure and enjoyment which it gave to all who were present.

G. H. Coston, Heathhall Factory Manager, giving a word of welcome to those attending the big function of the year at Dumfries.

Heathhall's Annual Factory Dinner and Dance

THE Annual Factory Dinner Dance was held on Friday, 11th November, at the Imperial Restaurant, Dumfries. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Coston and Mr. and Mrs. J.

Troy were the principal guests, and Mrs. Coston graciously presented the prizes. Included amongst the 150 employees and friends present were G. Crerar, our Footwear Production Manager, and Mrs. Crerar, G. McKean, our newly appointed Industrial Relations Manager, and J. B. Graham, Chairman of the Entertainments Committee, and Mrs. Graham.

Mr. Coston, in his speech, said that the past year had held some very pleasant

Mrs. Coston presenting a prize to a guest, Mr. Caven, with, behind, Eddie Hunter, the M.C., and Jimmy Anderson.

Alma McWilliam, Product Control, accepts the prize of "Belle of the Ball" from Mrs. J. B. Graham, wife of our Training Officer.

This happy group of revellers took time off to pose for our photographer.

